Fancy for its innovative dishes made with a twist, Indian Accent restaurant is nestled in the posh 4-star Manor Hotel in the capital. The fruit of seeds sown by world famous chef Manish Mehrotra, it has been tagged as the best restaurant of the country. What's extraordinary is that the food joint has been crowned as #1 for three years continuously — 2015, 2016 and now, 2017!

An online website — The World's Best 50 — ranks restaurants around the world after judging the food, quality, presentation, ambience, diversity and other parameters, and Indian Accent has grabbed the 30th spot on the list. From the 1000 members that have been selected for their expertise, the top spot was collared by the Gaggan Restaurant in Bangkok, Thailand. Mehrotra walked up to the stage to accept the award for Indian Accent late night on February 21.
