

February 1, 2016

12 global restaurant openings by the chefs of 50 Best

At the end of last year we saw Meatlicious in Bangkok by chef Gaggan Anand of Gaggan; Long Chim in Perth by Nahm's David Thompson, and Igniv, the new restaurant at Grand Resort Bad Ragaz in Switzerland by Andreas Caminada of Schloss Schauenstein.

This year there's no rest for the 50 Best chefs, with an eclectic mix of new restaurant openings across the globe.

Here are some of the ones to look out for:

NORTH AMERICA

11. Indian Accent – New York, USA

Tadka vegetables, baby spinach, roasted sesame salad and puffed amaranth and fig laddoo pops at Indian Accent

The concept: Indian Accent, the New Delhi restaurant by chef Manish Mehrotra that sits at No.22 in Asia's 50 Best Restaurants, is opening its first branch in New York. Expect eclectic world-meets-Indian cuisine in a luxurious but contemporary setting.

Opening: mid-February